New Group Fitness Participants... All of our classes are categorized for "ALL FITNESS LEVELS", as they are suitable for newcomers to group fitness classes, however, if you are ready to work at an Intermediate or Advanced level, there are plenty of options offered in each class to make your workout more intense!

Remember: be patient... group fitness takes skill, and if you are persistent, the steps will become easier and you will truly enjoy this exciting way to stay in shape. If you are new, please try to show up 10 minutes early to your scheduled class and let your instructor know before the class that it is your first time. Rest assured that no matter what class you attend, you are encouraged to go at your own pace. Our instructors are well qualified to ensure that your workout is beneficial and safe. Feel free to consult them in private... before or after a class. Physical Limits reserves the right to increase or decrease the number of classes and/or the times they are offered.
